

McEAChERN INDIANS

In the

Most players who put on the uniform at some time dreams about being able to play in the NFL. In our 49 year football history McEachern has had two individuals who have been able to realize that dream.

Adam Meadows played for McEachern High School from 1988 to 1992. He received a scholarship to the University of Georgia in 1993 and was drafted to the Indianapolis Colts in the 2nd round as the 48th pick. From 1997 to 2003 he played for the Colts and in 2006 joined the Denver Broncos.

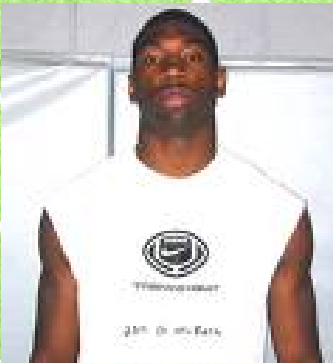

A ninth-year tackle with 102 career starts (inc. postseason) who joined the Broncos during their 2006 training camp after spending The 2004 and 2005 seasons out of football.

Spent his first seven professional seasons (1997-2003) with Indianapolis and competed in Carolina's 2004 training camp before he was placed on the reserve/retired list on Aug. 10, 2004.

Started three games for the Broncos at right tackle midway through the 2006 season.

Cont'd

Gerald McRath played for McEachern High School from 2001 to 2004. He received a scholarship to the Southern Mississippi in 2005 and was drafted to the Tennessee Titans in the 4th round as the 130th pick. Gerald is just at the outset of his NFL career and McEachern wishes him continual success. McRath was a team captain at McEachern High School in Powder Springs, GA. He recorded 85 total tackles as a senior, earning a two-star rating from rivals.com. McRath made visits to East Carolina, Auburn and BYU before deciding on Southern Miss. After redshirting in 2004, McRath was limited to two games of action in 2005 before suffering a knee injury against McNeese State. He was granted a medical redshirt year for the 2005 season. McRath recovered from his knee injury to become a regular starter over the next three seasons for Southern Miss. He was a third team All-Conference USA selection in 2006, finishing with a team-high 104 total tackles. McRath earned first team All-Conference USA selections in each of his next two seasons, and was the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year as a sophomore. McRath finished his career with 386 total tackles (32.5 for loss) and 8.0 sacks.

