

Phyllis Arthur, Camp Director

Coach Arthur has been coaching for many years, starting her career in Carnesville, Georgia (Franklin County High School), and continued coaching in Athens, Georgia (Cedar Shoals High School).

Coach Arthur became the head coach at Pebblebrook High School in 1999 and continued until 2006 after which she became the head coach for McEachern High School in 2006.

Coach Arthur has been an assistant for the North/South Girl's All Stars Basketball and an assistant coach for the Georgia/Tennessee Girl's All Stars. She was coach of the year for Cobb County in 2004 and 2011

While at Pebblebrook Coach Arthur and the Lady Falcons were region runner ups, and appeared in the state playoffs four times.

After one year at McEachern High School, the Lady Indians finished 3rd in the region, made it to the state playoffs and were ranked as high as fifth in the state. McEachern lady Indians have made it to the state playoffs 14 years in a row, the last five years have been under the direction of Coach Arthur. 2010-2011 the Lady Indians made it to the state championship game losing to Norcross. Thus, they are the state AAAAA runner up for year 2011.

Camp Objectives: The purpose of the Youth Indian Basketball Camp is to provide campers with the opportunity to improve their fundamental skills of basketball and increase their understanding of the game. It is our goal to teach basketball and sportsmanship with the best instructions. The camp will stress fundamental skills such as: shooting, passing, rebounding, screen and roll, dribbling, post moves, wing/guard moves, offense and defense, as well as, cooperative team play. We look for this to be a learning and fun filled experience for your child.

Note: 24 campers are required to guarantee session. Nine year olds may be asked to move to the older groups, and 10 year olds may be asked to move to the younger group.

Cost: The cost for each camper will be $100.00. Each camper will receive a camp basketball, and T-shirt.

Camp: May 31st-June 2nd from 8 am till 3 pm.

Special Instructions: Campers should wear gym shorts and T-shirt with gym shoes and preferably white socks. Campers may bring a marked towel if desired. You will receive a call approximately one week before camp starts to confirm your reservation. Campers must provide their own lunch.

Campers may also bring snacks for breaks. Sport drinks and water will be provided.
